

Register of Members Interests

A register of member's declared interests is a concept that is included in various pieces of local government legislation, in particular in legislation that has been implemented during the current century. This concept is consistent with open and transparent government. A similar concept exists in respect of the recording of the receipt of any gifts or hospitality by elected members. However, mostly, the implementation of such items has been confined to the larger public sector bodies such as unitary councils. More recently, guidance from the Welsh Government has confirmed that community and town councils in Wales now also need to maintain such a "register" and that this register must also be displayed electronically on the council's website, which, from 2015/2016, all local councils must have in place.

Frustratingly, there has been confusion and there have been differences of opinion and challenges in relation to this issue, in terms of what is actually required. One Voice Wales views the existence of a "register" as meaning any format of documentation where members' interests are shown (and the same would be so for any gifts or hospitality received by members). The Welsh Government civil servants do not promote any specific formats for this purpose within their published guidelines. One Voice Wales has developed a model form for such a purpose (see below).

What councils need to do :

Following discussions with the Welsh Government, it has become clear that the new responsibility for publishing the register of interests on-line does not require the completion of the form that One Voice Wales had circulated to member councils on 28th May 2015. It had been initially thought that the exemption for community and town councillors from the requirements of paragraph 15(1) of the model code of conduct to register certain financial and other interests within 28 days of taking up office had been removed by the 2013 Act. However, following discussion with the relevant Welsh Government policy official, this is not the case. The official is aware that there may well have been confusion on this point and has confirmed that the 2013 Act has no impact on the requirements of the code of conduct relating to the disclosure and registration of interests. In summary, the requirements of the code of conduct, as it applies to community and town councils, are as follows:

- a) Councillors are required to declare a personal and, if appropriate, prejudicial interest in relation to pertinent matters when they are present at meetings.
- b) When councillors disclose a personal interest for the first time, they must give written confirmation of the interest to the Proper Officer, before or immediately after the close of the meeting. It is good practice for the Proper Officer to record these declarations in the minutes of the meeting.
- c) The Proper Officer should record interests disclosed at meetings for the first time in the register of interests required under section 81 of the Local Government Act 2000. The register must be available for public inspection at all reasonable hours and, following commencement of the 2013 Act, must be made available on the council's website.
- d) The register should be updated as soon as reasonably practicable after each and every meeting when new interests are disclosed.

What declarations to record :

Declarations of interest should be made in keeping with the Code of Conduct for members of local authorities in Wales (refer to the Guidance from the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales for members of community councils – which is available for inspection on the members' section of the One Voice Wales website). The published guidance includes details about personal and prejudicial interests and also refers to gifts and hospitality. Ultimately, it is for members to judge whether or not they make a declaration of interest depending upon the circumstances of their situation. Others (third parties) can always issue a challenge against any non declaration of interests, so members always need to be reminded to take such considerations seriously.

Template for register/declarations :

One Voice Wales has compiled a "template" for member councils to use for the purpose of implementing such a register, and this has been distributed to member councils. Copies of this template are available on the members' section of the One Voice Wales website, if required. If using these (or any other) forms for officially recording declarations of interest, then the "register" as such will be the overall collection of these forms presented together. These can be presented in any convenient manner, possibly ordered by name of member or in date order. Clearly, any members who have not declared an interest will not have any forms filled for this purpose, so their register entries will be blank (that is, they won't have any entries). It is not considered necessary to present any such "blank" forms on the council's website, but it is not wrong to do so if desired.
